Dear Harold:

I will look forward to seeing you in the Washington, D. C. area on my next trip up there.

I have been so terribly busy, I haven't had time to do anything other than take care of the emergencies as they arrive.

I had a visit from Mr. Fensterwald, and I was neither impressed nor disappointed in him. My only difficulty is sizing him up, as to whether his work is important enough for me to divulge some confidential information to him. He has your name of people working with him.

Very truly yours,

Paul M. Rothermel, Jr.
